Meeting 1 with your faculty mentor is to get advice on mythic/legendary texts of particular interest in the cultural tradition(s) you study. Bring with you a summary of the myth/legend you wish to work on this semester, a draft of your bibliography (at least 5 sources), and the rubric used for leading seminar. Your mentor will suggest additional texts (primary and secondary), short videos, music, etc. The primary purpose of this meeting is to help you prepare to lead the seminar for a day, and to be sure your research is off to a strong start.

Instructions: Please respond to the questions listed below before, during, and after your meeting with your faculty mentor. After completing the form, take clear photos of each page and upload them to Canvas by the deadline specified in the syllabus.

Preparation before meeting

1. Briefly describe the myth/legend you are considering using for your project this semester:

2. List your working bibliography here (at least 5 sources):
Notes taken during meeting

3. Additional texts suggested by mentor for your research:

4. Discuss the rubric for leading the seminar with your faculty mentor. List your mentor’s suggestions here, especially materials you can use to engage the class (short videos, songs, artwork, etc.):

Follow-up: next steps you will take

5. List what you will do next for your research project, after this meeting with your mentor: